

McGrathNicol Wins Three BRW Client Choice Awards

Thursday, 12 March 2009: McGrathNicol today announced that it was awarded three BRW Client Choice Awards at last night's event. The awards included Best Accounting Firm (revenue $50-500 million) and two attribute awards for Exceptional Service and Most Innovative company.

The annual BRW Client Choice Awards are the most prestigious awards for professional service firms in Australia. Importantly the Awards are determined by the views of over 30,000 clients based in Australia and overseas.

Mr Colin Nicol, CEO of McGrathNicol said: "It is an honour to be receiving these BRW Client Choice Awards as it reflects our clients' views and demonstrates their recognition of our efforts to meet and exceed their expectations.

"It is an endorsement of the level of client service and commitment displayed by our entire team," he added.

The Awards were presented to winners and finalists at a special dinner held in the Four Seasons Hotel in Sydney on 11 March 2009.

The Awards are open to all professional service firms, including law, accounting, IT consulting, engineering, patent and trade mark attorney, architectural and actuarial firms. Nominees are rated on responsiveness, perceptions of value, loyalty and access to senior Partners and Managers.

In total 30 awards were presented to the best professional service firms across a range of different categories.
