McGrathNicol congratulates two new Partners

Leading independent advisory firm McGrathNicol, specialising in Corporate Advisory, Forensic, Transaction Services and Corporate Recovery, is delighted to announce the admission of Keith Crawford and Ashley Walton to the McGrathNicol Partnership from 1 January 2008.

Keith has led numerous high profile cross border insolvency and restructuring assignments over the past 11 years. Ashley has multinational Transaction Services experience with both private equity and corporate clients, and extensive due diligence experience across a number of industry sectors.

We congratulate Keith and Ashley on their achievement and are confident that they will continue the McGrathNicol tradition of independent, premium quality client service.
