

William Black
Partner

- Ⓣ +64 9 926 5106
- ⓔ wblack@mcnp.co.nz
- Ⓞ Auckland office
L17, 34 Shortland Street
Auckland
New Zealand

William is a founding partner of McGrathNicol in New Zealand which acquired the Corporate Recovery practice of KPMG in New Zealand effective 1 August 2004. William originally joined KPMG New Zealand in 2002 from the UK, where he had 10 years corporate recovery experience with PwC in London. This included a secondment to a major UK clearing bank in its workouts team.

Experience

Industry Sector Experience

William has significant experience in both corporate recovery advisory and formal insolvency appointments, across a wide range of industries, including telecommunications, retail, manufacturing, mining, timber processing, commodity broking, automotive, leisure and financial services.

Examples include:

- debt structure review for Eurotunnel bank syndicate
- independent business review of listed mining entity
- independent business review of UK Premier League Football Club
- independent business review of NZ food manufacturer
- independent business review of NZ wool broker
- independent business review of NZ steel importer
- Nylex (New Zealand) Limited – Receivership
- Feltex Carpets Limited – Receivership
- Coast Site Group - Receivership
- Rattrays Wholesale Limited - Receivership
- Carich Training Centre Limited - Receivership
- Dominion Finance Group - Liquidation
- HIH Insurance Group – Liquidation
- ION Automotive – Liquidation
- Pack & Pedal Limited – Receivership

Qualifications

Member, Institute of Chartered Accountants in New Zealand
 Member, Institute of Chartered Accountants in South Africa
 Fellow, Chartered Association of Certified Accountants in UK
 Past Chairman of INSOL New Zealand
 Bachelor of Commerce, University of Cape Town
 Post Graduate Diploma in Accounting, University of Cape Town