

The Girl & Bull Pty Ltd (Administrators Appointed)
ACN 620 082 822 (The Girl & Bull)
Initial Information for Creditors

Robert Smith and I were appointed joint and several Voluntary Administrators (Administrators) of The Girl & Bull on 27 January 2023.

We have been appointed to represent the interests of all creditors. We are responsible for taking control of The Girl & Bull's assets and business, investigating The Girl & Bull's affairs, reporting and providing opinions to creditors and holding meetings of creditors to make decisions on the future of The Girl & Bull.

According to The Girl & Bull's records, you may be a creditor of The Girl & Bull.

The purpose of this document is to provide you with information about the voluntary administration and your rights as a creditor.

Declaration of Independence, Relevant Relationships and Indemnities (DIRRI)

We enclose our DIRRI. This document records our conclusion that we are independent to act and discloses who appointed us.

What you should do

You should:

- read the enclosed information;
- decide whether you are going to participate in the first meeting; and if so
- complete and return your proof of debt and proxy form (if required) by 4:00pm (AEDT) on Tuesday 7 February 2023.

Meetings of creditors

As voluntary administrators, we are required to hold two meetings of creditors.

First meetings of creditors

The first meeting of creditors will be held as follows:

Date: Wednesday 8 February 2023

Time: 2:30pm (AEDT)

Address: Virtual meeting details will be provided upon request (no in-person meeting will be held)

Creditors will be provided with a short progress update on the administration at this meeting. The other purposes of this meeting are to consider:

- our appointment; and
- whether to appoint a Committee of Inspection (as small group of representative creditors to assist the Administrators).

We enclose a notice of meeting. The meeting will only be held virtually using online video conferencing. The online video conference can be joined from a computer (preferred) or telephone. Voting will be conducted by taking a poll by an electronic survey accessible by computer or mobile device.

Please confirm whether you wish to attend the meeting, prior to 4:00pm (AEDT) on Tuesday 7 February 2023, by contacting the Administrators by email (ylin@mcgrathnicol.com). You will then be provided with detailed instructions on how to participate in the virtual meeting.

To participate in this meeting, you must submit a proof of debt to substantiate your claim. If the creditor is a person and will attend the meeting, this is all that is required. However, if the creditor is another type of entity (such as a company), they must also appoint a person – a “proxy” or person authorised under a power of attorney – to vote on behalf of the creditor at the meeting. A proxy should also be appointed if the creditor is a person, but is not available to attend the meeting.

You can appoint the chairperson of the meeting as your proxy and direct the chairperson how you wish your vote to be cast. If you choose to do this, the chairperson must cast your vote as directed.

Proof of debt and proxy forms are enclosed, together with guidance notes to assist you when you complete them. Your completed proof of debt and, if applicable, proxy form must be returned to the Administrators by post or by email to ylin@mcgrathnicol.com by 4:00 pm (AEDT) on Tuesday 7 February 2023. Email communication is preferred. If you are using the post to return your forms, please ensure you use the ‘express post’ option.

We also enclose general information for attending and voting at virtual meetings of creditors.

Committee of Inspection

At the first meeting, creditors will consider whether a Committee of Inspection (COI) should be appointed. The role of a COI is to consult with the voluntary administrators and receive reports on the conduct of the administration.

Second meeting of creditors

We will also, in due course, call a second meeting of creditors.

The purpose of that meeting is for creditors to consider our report and make a decision on the future of The Girl & Bull.

Before that meeting you will be sent the notice of meeting and a detailed report which will set out the options for The Girl & Bull’s future. We will also provide our opinion as to what option we think is in the best interests of creditors.

You are encouraged to attend these meetings and participate in the voluntary administration process.

Question	Answer
What is a voluntary administration?	A voluntary administration, or VA, is a process initiated by the director(s) of a company or a secured creditor of a company when they form the view the company is, or is likely to become, insolvent. ‘Insolvent’ means that the company is, or is likely to become, unable to pay its debts when they fall due. Less commonly, a VA is commenced by a liquidator of the company. In this case, the VA appointment was made by the sole director of The Girl & Bull. The objective of a voluntary administration is to preserve as much as possible of the business of the company or, if that is not feasible, seek a better outcome for creditors than an immediate liquidation of the company. The process involves the appointment of a voluntary administrator to the company to administer and investigate the business, property, affairs and financial circumstances of the company. A voluntary administrator must complete investigations, form an opinion about the company’s financial position and its future and issue a detailed report to creditors of the company. Creditors are then given the opportunity to vote on the future of the company.

Question	Answer
What are your rights as a creditor?	We enclose a copy of the information sheet “Creditor Rights in Voluntary Administrations” issued by the Australian Restructuring Insolvency & Turnaround Association (ARITA). It includes information on your rights to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ make reasonable requests for information; ▪ give directions to the Administrators; ▪ appoint a reviewing liquidator; and ▪ replace us as Administrators.
What happens to your debt?	All creditors of The Girl & Bull are now creditors in the voluntary administration and your debt will be dealt with in the voluntary administration. It is important to note that a voluntary administration creates restrictions on creditors being able to enforce their rights. You generally cannot enforce your claim, recover your property, enforce your security, commence an action to place The Girl & Bull into liquidation or act on a personal guarantee. If you have leased property to The Girl & Bull, have a retention of title claim or have a registered personal property security interest in relation to The Girl & Bull, please contact the Administrators at ylin@mcgrathnicol.com as soon as possible. We are in the process of winding down the business of the Girl & Bull as the Administrators have insufficient funds to continue operations. If you are a supplier or employee, you should have received a separate communication on how this appointment affects your ongoing dealings with The Girl & Bull.
What is the cost of the voluntary administration?	We get paid out of The Girl & Bull’s money, including realisations from assets or from money paid to us by others, such as The Girl & Bull’s director. If there is not enough money in the voluntary administration, we do not get paid in full. We enclose our Initial Remuneration Notice which provides you with information about how we propose to be paid for undertaking the voluntary administration. We will seek your approval of our remuneration at the second meeting of creditors, unless that remuneration is approved earlier by a COI (if one is appointed). We will provide you with detailed information about what tasks we have undertaken and the costs of those tasks.
What happens next with the voluntary administration?	We will proceed with the voluntary administration, which will include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ winding down the operations and exiting the premises; ▪ realising some or all of the assets of The Girl & Bull if that is the most appropriate course of action; ▪ preparing for and holding the meetings of creditors; ▪ investigating Girl & Bull’s affairs; ▪ analysing any offer for a Deed of Company Arrangement that is proposed; and ▪ preparing our report to creditors. As discussed above, you will receive further correspondence from us before the second meeting of creditors.

Where can you get more information?	ARITA provides information to assist creditors to understand voluntary administrations and insolvency. This information is available from ARITA's website at www.arita.com.au/creditors. A copy of the information sheet, "Insolvency information for directors, employees, creditors and shareholders", issued by the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) is also enclosed for your information.
