Initial Information for Creditors

Rob Brauer and I were appointed Administrators of Dalcassian on 30 April 2020.

We have been appointed to represent the interests of all creditors. We are responsible for taking control of Dalcassian's assets and business, investigating Dalcassian's affairs, reporting and providing opinions to creditors and holding meetings of creditors to make decisions on the future of Dalcassian.

According to Dalcassian's records, you may be a creditor of Dalcassian.

The purpose of this document is to provide you with information about the voluntary administration and your rights as a creditor.

Declaration of Independence, Relevant Relationships and Indemnities (DIRRI)

We enclose our DIRRI. Our independent status and who appointed us is outlined in our DIRRI.

What you should do

You should:

- read the enclosed information;
- decide whether you are going to participate in the first meeting; and if so
- complete and return your proof of debt and proxy form (if required) by Monday, 11 May 2020.

Meetings of creditors

As voluntary administrators, we are required to hold two meetings of creditors.

First meetings of creditors

The first meeting of creditors will be held as follows:

Date: 12 May 2020

Time: 10:00AM

Address: By teleconference and/or webinar only

As there is no physical location for this meeting due to the government's social distancing rules in relation to Covid-19 please confirm whether you wish to attend the meeting, prior to the above date, and you will be provide with the relevant teleconference / webinar details.

The purpose of this meeting is to consider:

- our appointment; and
- whether to appoint a Committee of Inspection.

We enclose a notice of meeting. To participate in this meeting, you must submit a proof of debt and information to substantiate your claim. If the creditor is a person and will attend the meeting, this is all that is required. However, if the creditor is another type of entity (such as a company), they must also appoint a person – a "proxy" or person authorised under a power of attorney – to vote on behalf of the creditor at the meeting. A proxy should also be appointed if the creditor is a person, but is not available to attend the meeting.

You can appoint the chairperson of the meeting as your proxy and direct the chairperson how you wish your vote to be cast. If you choose to do this, the chairperson must cast your vote as directed.

Proof of debt and proxy forms are enclosed, together with guidance notes to assist you when you complete them. Your completed proof of debt and, if applicable, proxy form must be returned to Phoebe Donaldson by post or by email to pdonaldson@mcgrathnicol.com by Monday, 11 May 2020.

We also enclose general information for attending and voting at meetings of creditors.

Committee of Inspection

At the first meeting, creditors will consider whether a Committee of Inspection (COI) should be appointed. The role of a COI is to consult with the voluntary administrators and receive reports on the conduct of the administration. A COI can also approve the voluntary administrators' fees.

It is our opinion that a COI is not required for this voluntary administration (VA) for the following reasons:

- there are a limited number of creditors;
- there are limited funds;
- there is a lack of complexity in the voluntary administration; and

However, it is for creditors to decide if they would like to form a COI in this voluntary administration.

Second meeting of creditors

We will also, in due course, call a second meeting of creditors.

The purpose of that meeting is for creditors to consider our report and make a decision on the future of Dalcassian.

Before that meeting you will be sent the notice of meeting and a detailed report which will set out the options for Dalcassian's future. We will also provide our opinion as to what option we think is in the best interests of creditors.

You are encouraged to attend these meetings and participate in the voluntary administration process.

What do you need to know?

Question	Answer
What is a voluntary administration?	A voluntary administration, or VA, is a process initiated by the director(s) of a company or a secured creditor of a company when they form the view the company is, or is likely to become, insolvent. 'Insolvent' means that the company is, or is likely to become, unable to pay its debts when they fall due. Less commonly, a VA is commenced by a liquidator of the company. In this case, the VA appointment was made by the director of the company. The objective of a voluntary administration is to preserve as much as possible of the business of the company or, if that is not feasible, seek a better outcome for creditors than an immediate liquidation of the company. The process involves the appointment of a voluntary administrator to the company to administer and investigate the business, property, affairs and financial circumstances of the company. A voluntary administrator must complete investigations, form an opinion about the company's financial position and its future and issue a detailed report to creditors of the company. Creditors are then given the opportunity to vote on the future of the company.

Question	Answer
What are your rights as a creditor?	We enclose a copy of the information sheet “Creditor Rights in Voluntary Administrations” issued by the Australian Restructuring Insolvency & Turnaround Association (ARITA). It includes information on your rights to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ make reasonable requests for information; ▪ give directions to the Administrators; ▪ appoint a reviewing liquidator; and ▪ replace us as Administrators.
What happens to your debt?	All creditors of Dalcassian are now creditors in the voluntary administration and your debt will be dealt with in the voluntary administration. It is important to note that a voluntary administration creates restrictions on creditors being able to enforce their rights. You generally cannot enforce your claim, recover your property, enforce your security, commence an action to place the company into liquidation or act on a personal guarantee. If you have leased property to Dalcassian, have a retention of title claim or have a registered personal property security interest in relation to Dalcassian, please contact Phoebe Donaldson on 08 6363 7619 as soon as possible.
What is the cost of the voluntary administration?	We get paid out of Dalcassian’s money, including realisations from assets or from money paid to us by others, such as Dalcassian’s directors. If there is not enough money in the voluntary administration, we do not get paid in full. We enclose our Initial Remuneration Notice which provides you with information about how we propose to be paid for undertaking the voluntary administration. We will seek your approval of our remuneration at the second meeting of creditors, unless that remuneration is approved earlier by a COI (if one is appointed). We will provide you with detailed information about what tasks we have undertaken and the costs of those tasks.
What happens next with the voluntary administration?	We will proceed with the voluntary administration, which will include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ conducting an expedited sale of business campaign to ensure the business can continue beyond the Administrators appointment; ▪ preparing for and holding the first meetings of creditors; ▪ investigating Dalcassian’s affairs; ▪ analysing any offer for a Deed of Company Arrangement (where relevant); and ▪ preparing our report to creditors ahead of the second meeting of creditors. As discussed above, you will receive further correspondence from us before the second meeting of creditors.
