

Initial Remuneration Notice
Unimoni (Administrators Appointed)
ACN 106 948 092
(Unimoni)

The purpose of the Initial Remuneration Notice is to provide you with information about how we propose our remuneration for undertaking the voluntary administration will be set.

1 Remuneration methods

There are four basic methods that can be used to calculate the remuneration charged by an insolvency practitioner in a voluntary administration. They are:

- A. Time based/hourly rates: This is the most common method. The total fee charged is based on the hourly rate charged for each person who carried out the work, multiplied by the number of hours spent by each person on each of the tasks performed.
- B. Fixed Fee: The total fee charged is normally quoted at the commencement of the voluntary administration and is the total cost for the voluntary administration.
- C. Percentage: The total fee charged is based on a percentage of a particular variable, such as the gross proceeds of asset realisations.
- D. Contingency: The practitioners' fee is structured to be contingent on a particular outcome being achieved.

2 Method chosen

Given the nature of this external administration, we propose that our remuneration be calculated on a time basis which will be recorded and charged in six minute increments. Details of the hourly rates for different levels of staff are included below. The complexity and demands of the external administration will determine the staff to be utilised for this appointment.

We have chosen the time based method because:

- This method is considered to be most suitable for this appointment as it ensures creditors are only charged for work that is performed in the voluntary administration, which can be difficult to accurately estimate at the date of appointment.
- Even later than the date of appointment, it can be difficult to estimate the time that may be required in advance of the substantive work being undertaken. The time based method in this case again ensures that creditors are only charged for work that is actually performed in the voluntary administration.
- We are required to perform a number of tasks which do not relate to the realisation of assets, for example responding to creditor enquiries, reporting to ASIC and distributing funds in accordance with the provisions of the Corporations Act.
- We have a time recording system that can produce a detailed analysis of time spent on each type of task by each individual staff member utilised in the voluntary administration.
- Time based remuneration calculates fees upon a basis of time spent at the level appropriate to the work performed.

3 Explanation of Hourly Rates

The rates for our remuneration calculation are set out in the following table, together with a general guide showing the qualifications and experience of staff engaged in the voluntary administration and the role they take in the voluntary administration. The hourly rates charged encompass the total cost of providing professional services and should not be compared to an hourly wage.

McGrathNicol reviews its hourly rates on either 31 December or 30 June. Creditors will be advised of any change to the hourly rates for this external administration.

4 Estimated remuneration

We estimate that this voluntary administration will cost approximately $250,000 to $350,000 to complete, subject to the following variables may have a significant effect on this estimate and that we are unable to determine at this early stage:

- uncertainty around the timing and manner of sale (going concern or orderly shut-down basis) of Unimoni's business and assets;
- the nature of the recapitalisation proposals that may be received;
- the uncertainty of actions to be taken by overseas stakeholders;
- the unpredictable level of work required to stabilise the business and take control of all staffing and operational matters;
- the time that may be required to obtain books, records, funds and assets (if any) from the parties that hold them;
- the number and value of claims that may be received in the external administration and work that may be required to adjudicate on those claims for voting and/or dividend purposes;
- work that may be required to distribute funds to creditors;
- investigations that may be required to ascertain the existence and location of any other assets, including potential legal actions that may be available to the external administrator;

- where viable legal claims are identified, the timeframe to resolution becomes very significantly impacted by the conduct of the defendant and their willingness to resolve the claim by a negotiated settlement, as well as Court timeframes, both of which are difficult to predict; and
- any identified matters that are required to be reported to statutory authorities such as ASIC.

5 Disbursements

Disbursements are divided into two types:

- External disbursements – these are recovered at cost. Examples are travel, accommodation, postage, advertising, couriers and search fees.
- Internal disbursements – these disbursements are charged at a rate which recoups both fixed and variable costs and may include an element of profit or advantage to the External Administrator or a related party of the External Administrator. Examples are printing and data storage. The recovery of these costs must be on a reasonable commercial basis. Details of the basis of recovery of each of these costs is discussed below.

We are not required to seek creditor approval for disbursements paid to third parties where I am recovering at cost what was incurred on behalf of the administration, but must account to creditors. We must be satisfied that these disbursements are appropriate, justified and reasonable.

We are required to obtain creditor’s consent for the payment of a disbursement where we, or a related entity of ours, may directly or indirectly obtain a profit. In these circumstances, creditors will be asked to approve our disbursements prior to these disbursements being paid from the voluntary administration.

Details of the basis of recovering disbursements in this external administration are provided below.

For clarity, it is noted that any time costs of any employee of McGrathNicol or any associated entity will be reported as part of our remuneration, for which approval may be sought.

** Payable when partners or staff are required for business purposes to stay away from their usual place of residence overnight

*** These rates are deemed reasonable by the Australian Taxation Office

Further explanation of data hosting disbursements

In the conduct of this voluntary administration, we may use McGrathNicol's Forensic Technology team to extract, aggregate, electronically process and/or host electronic data, which could be used for the:

- trade or sale of the business or assets; and/or
- investigations regarding transactions or potential recoveries available to creditors.

If data hosting is required and we choose not to use the services of McGrathNicol's Forensic Technology team, we will otherwise have to purchase those services from an alternative provider and/or use another method to achieve the same end, which will not be as efficient as using these available internal services.

We note that the data hosting rates above are no more than our standard commercial pricing available for the same services when they are provided to external parties.
