Responsibilities of Officers and Employees

The duties and responsibilities of the officers and employees of a company under administration are set out below for your guidance.

- All documents issued by the company must have “(Administrators Appointed)” after the company name where it first appears on the document.
- When a company is placed under administration, the powers of the directors and other officers are suspended. However, under certain circumstances, and only with the consent of the Administrators, those powers may continue. Some obligations of the directors will continue to apply, for example the obligation to lodge Annual Statements with ASIC.
- The Administrators may carry on the business and may employ or remove an officer or employee for this purpose.
- Without the express written authority of the Administrators:
  - No order for goods or services will be placed that has not been signed personally by the Administrators, or a person nominated by the Administrators.
  - No goods will be accepted by the company from any source whatsoever that are not the subject of an order signed by the Administrators, or the nominated representative of the Administrators.
  - No credit will be incurred.
  - No payments will be made.
  - No goods will be returned to any supplier.
- All cash and cheques received will be passed to the Administrators.
- No assets of the company will be removed from the company’s custody without the written approval of the Administrators.
- All assets are to be secured against theft, under lock and key.
- The entire assets and undertaking of the company are under the express and sole control and custodianship of the Administrators and may only be dealt with by the Administrators.
